NOTICE TO ALL EXHIBITORS:

All dogs run at owners' sole risk. How to enter your dog and earn AKC Titles

- ✓ Your dog must have an AKC QC form, or an ASFA certification form to enter it's first trial.
- ✓ Next, if your dog has practiced successfully with other dogs (not interfering either aggressively OR playfully), you should enter him in Open and work towards the Senior Courser (SC) title. If your dog also wins a placement he will earn points towards his Field Championship (see point scale below). CHECK "OPEN" ON THE ENTRY FORM, AND PAY THE ENTRY FEE FOR OPEN. There is no additional fee for the SC leg. To earn the SC title, the hound must run with at least one other hound, and must receive qualifying scores at FOUR (4) AKC trials under two different judges or judging panels.
- ✓ When your dog has earned the SC title, he most likely will still be competing for Field Championship points. If he receives qualifying scores in 25 trials, he will earn the Master Courser (MC) title.
- ✓ The title of Field Champion (FC) is a prefix to a hound's name. It is earned by obtaining 15 points from the Open or Veteran stakes. Dog must win 2 first placements worth 3 or more points under two different judges or judging panels (majors).
- ✓ A dog who has earned his Field Championship title must be entered in the Specials Stake.

- * If you have ANY questions about what stakes to enter your dog, e-mail the co field trial secretary at Pfyre@PfyreWhpts.com
- * Make sure to bring shade and water for your hounds.
- * There are porta toilets on site, as well as indoor bathrooms, with showers.
- * Make sure to pay attention to the running order, your dog's colors, and to the paddock master – if your hound is ready and waiting when it's their turn to run, the trial runs more smoothly for everyone. Any hound that is more than five minutes late in getting to the line for their course may be excused from competition for the day as per AKC rules.
- * If you are new to the sport, grab someone and ask questions! We're always happy to help "newbies" learn the ropes!
